

MEET HERE TO-NIGHT.

THE EXECUTIVE AND STATE COMMITTEES TO ASSEMBLE.

Time and Place for the Convention and the Basis of Representation to be Fixed—Members of the Two Bodies.

The State Democratic Committee will meet to-night at 8 o'clock at the Exchange Hotel to select the time and place for holding the State Convention, at which will be elected delegates to the National Convention, to be held in Chicago on the 7th of July.

The committee will, of course, fix the basis of representation. This sometimes has been one delegate to every 100 voters, while at other conventions it has been one delegate to every 200. It is probable that the vote for Governor in 1893 will be made the basis of representation. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 8 o'clock.

AS TO THE PLACE.

There will probably be a lively little discussion when the question comes up as to where the State Convention shall be held. Lynchburg, Roanoke, and Staunton are all in the race, and it is understood that each city will have delegations to the meeting to present their claims. Staunton, probably, has the best chance of securing the convention, as they have made an organized fight for it, and seven delegates are said to have committed themselves to that city, while eight are pledged to it as their "second choice."

The following are the members of the organization:

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Rufus A. Ayers, Big Stone Gap; Joseph Hyatt, Richmond; W. A. Glasgow, Roanoke; W. A. Jones, Warsaw; T. M. Logan, Howardville; W. H. Mann, Nettoway Courthouse; T. S. Martin, Scottsville; Leonard Marbury, Alexandria; Claude A. Swanson, Chatham; A. P. Thoms, Norfolk.

OBJECTED TO HER PRESENCE.

This led to a fight at a Ball—Other Cases in Court.

J. A. Baccigalupo, C. D. Hutzler, Frank Walters, Joseph Morano, and Ernest Kessler, were in the Police Court yesterday morning, charged with indulging in a free fight at the ball given in Sanger Hall Tuesday night by the Columbus Band. The examination lasted for some time, and the case was very much involved. It appeared from the evidence that objection was raised to the presence of the woman taken to the dance by Hutzler, and this precipitated a general fight, in which a number of the men participated. Justice Crutchfield will hold a trial to find out who were the guilty parties, and after about half an hour said he was satisfied he was being robbed by the witnesses not divulging the facts, and, on general principles, he imposed a fine of $5 and costs each on Baccigalupo and Hutzler.

Mary Christian, the colored girl, who was arrested Monday night for stealing four pieces of dress goods, one piece of gingham, and two pieces of cotton, from her former employer, Miss Katie Agnew, was sent on to the grand jury by Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning in the Police Court.

Four months for petty larceny were awarded James H. Ryland, an colored man, who was charged with stealing a watch, a pair of shoes, and a pair of pants, and when found by the police in bed he stated that he had been snatched, but where he could not tell.

John Nash (colored), charged with stealing an overcoat from Peter Nowell, was convicted of petty larceny and sentenced to thirty days in jail.

For stealing coal from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, John Welsh was required to give $100 security, in default of which he will go to jail for ten days. Welsh stated his circumstances, and in consideration of the severe weather, the justice made the punishment as light as possible.

James Randolph (colored), charged with being a suspicious character, was required to give $100, in default of which he will have to spend sixty days in jail.

History Committee of Grand Camp.

As has been announced, the History Committee of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia will meet at Murphy's Hotel at 8 o'clock Friday night, the 21st instant.

A full attendance of the members of the committee is promised. Invitations have been sent to many prominent gentlemen to be present, among them Governor O'Ferrall, who, it is hoped, may report the full success of his mission to Washington—namely, to secure to the State a copy of the muster-rolls of Virginia soldiers, now held in the War Department.

New Odd-Fellows Lodge.

Lodge No. 123, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, will be instituted at Ashland to-night by District Deputy-Grand Master Morris Pohl and Messrs. Diagne, Bailey, and others. All Odd-Fellows will be welcome. The lodge will be held at 4 P. M., 620 P. M. (from Elba), and 730 P. M. Returning, leave Ashland at 12 M. and 6 A. M.

Aurora Lodge degree team will go up on the 620 P. M. train, leaving from Elba Station.

Married at Sacred Heart Church.

At Sacred Heart church Tuesday at noon Miss Ella D. Dreelin became the bride of Mr. Joseph H. Fisher, Rev. Father O'Reilly performing the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome travelling suit of plum-colored cloth, with hat and gloves to match. The best man was Mr. Andrew Dreelin (brother of the bride), while Messrs. P. Hardy, L. Redford, and J. Cullen acted as ushers. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a northern tour.

A lucky accident.

For Rev. J. M. Stevenson, Hawthorne, N. J., who writes: "By rare accident I was made acquainted with Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills. They act gently and like a charm, correcting the secretions and preventing constipation. I subscribe myself your friend, as your pills are welcome friends to me."

LETTERS that we heard of, was from a woman who said that Pearlina hurt her hands! We knew that this couldn't be. But we looked into the matter, and found that she was using one of the poorest and most dangerous of bar soaps with her Pearlina. When we induced her to use Pearlina alone, without this soap, everything was lovely. Use no soap, when you do any washing or cleaning with Pearlina. It's needless, and more expensive—and it may do harm.

Millions USE Pearlina NOW.
